JOBSEEKERS

Are you looking for work?

Have you thought about a job in hospitality - a booming sector with enormous opportunity to learn new skills and secure solid employment?

Cafes, restaurants and other hospitality businesses across the Illawarra are looking to recruit hundreds of staff over coming weeks and months to meet increased demand from the September UCI event, and the busy summer trading period. The Illawarra Hospitality Is Hiring campaign is being held from August to November 2022 to help fill these jobs.

If you're a jobseeker or student looking for work, or existing worker looking for extra hours, you should check out the jobs on offer at the campaign site (www.ishiring.com.au) where you can also register your details with The Hiring List to ensure you're linked to the jobs you want.

New jobs will be posted regularly between late August and the end of November 2022 so be sure to check the site frequently.

If you'd like to meet some of the employers, as well as the other services that exist to support you with training or finding and keeping a job, we'll be holding a Hiring Day in November where employers and others will be on hand to answer your questions and help you get into work!

Be sure to register with The Hiring List on the campaign site to be notified of this event.
